SPECIAL EDUCATION TEACHERS REQUIREMENTS TO MEET IDEA HIGHLY QUALIFIED DEFINITION.

There are three categories of highly qualified special educators listed below:

1) Special educators teaching core academic classes:

This is a teacher providing direct instruction to students with disabilities in a core academic subject. Teachers who deliver instruction to students with disabilities are required to meet the same standards for content knowledge as general education teachers. Core academic subjects are: English, reading or language arts, mathematics, science, foreign languages, civics and government, economics, arts, history, and geography.

2) Special educators teaching students with significant cognitive disabilities:

The elementary or middle/secondary special education teacher teaches core academic subjects exclusively to students with disabilities who are assessed against alternate achievement standards.

3) Special educators providing consultative services:

Services include: adapting curricula, modifying instructional method, using behavioral supports and interventions, and/or selecting/using appropriate accommodations. It may also include: providing direct assistance to student with disabilities such as: tutoring, reinforcement of content provided in the general education setting in the resource class setting or self-contained classroom.
